From the author of Kara the Kākāpō, Harry the Hermit Crab and Calum the Chameleon, this beautifully illustrated story explores the remarkable environments inhabited by penguin species around the world.

When a storm carries Lulu far from home, the little blue penguin finds herself on an unexpected journey across oceans, deserts, icy landscapes and remote islands. Along the way she meets penguins from around the world, each with their own remarkable homes, habits and stories to share.

Beautifully illustrated by Evan Heasman, Lulu the Little Blue Penguin combines an engaging rhyming story with fascinating wildlife facts, introducing young readers to some of the world's most extraordinary penguin species.
Full of adventure, friendship and discovery, this charming picture book encourages children to explore the natural world and celebrate the incredible diversity of life on our planet.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Danni Rae has been working with animals for over 17 years as a zookeeper, wildlife biologist and tour guide. She has a passion for connecting children with animals and the environment and wants to use her experience to inspire conservation connections through engaging and educational animal adventure stories. When she isn't working, Danni can be found writing, reading, hiking and studying for a degree in Ecology and Anthropology!

ABOUT THE ILLUSTRATOR: Evan Heasman (also known by the artist name Soju Shots) is an illustrator who takes great inspiration from nature and fairytales. He uses a combination of pen, watercolour, photography and digital mediums to create his characters and the magical worlds they come from.
He works between his home and his little studio in beautiful Waipu.
